

COUNTY FAIR AT BROWNSTOWN

Crowd Large This Afternoon Regardless of the Inclement Weather—Friday to be Big Day.

EXHIBITS HOUSED UNDER TENT

T. M. Honan Addresses Soldiers This Afternoon—Lieut. Governor to Speak Friday.

The first Jackson county agricultural fair opened at the county seat today and regardless of the inclement weather, a large crowd was on the streets there to enjoy the event. It is estimated that several thousand people would have attended the fair today if the weather had been favorable. Friday promises to be the big day and it is predicted that the largest crowd ever have gathered at Brownstown will be present.

The fair exhibits were all in readiness for the opening of the fair early this morning. Over one hundred head of hogs, forty head of cattle and about forty head of horses and mules are on exhibit. There is also a fine display of poultry, farm products and other things in proportion.

Features of the live stock display are two fine hogs weighing over 1000 pounds each. One of the animals is owned by I. W. Burcham, the well-known Vallonia breeder and it weighs 1200 pounds. It is the largest hog in the county.

Besides the splendid exhibit there is plenty of amusement for old and young alike on the grounds. The entertainment consists of six free acts daily, music by bands, several shows and numerous other attractions. The event opened Wednesday night and will continue through Saturday. Many local people are planning to go to Brownstown to attend the fair and enjoy the festivities. $800 in prizes will be distributed to farmers having exhibits at the fair. The exhibits are housed in tents and are open throughout the day and evening.

Scores of ex-soldiers listened to an address given by Hon. Thomas M. Honan at the court house this afternoon. Lieut. Governor Edgar Bush, of Salem, will address the farmers Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

RUN OVER BY LOADED WAGON AND SUFFERS FRACTURED LEG

William Kruge, Sr., Meets With Accident at Home Corner of Sixth and O'Brien.

William Kruge, who lives at the corner of Sixth and O'Brien streets, suffered a fracture of his left leg Wednesday afternoon when he was hit and knocked down by a wagon when it started to roll down a concrete driveway. His leg was broken between the knee and the hip. His physicians report his condition as satisfactory.

Mr. Kruge had driven to his farm northeast of the city and returned home with a load of pumpkins. He had unhitched the horses from the wagon which was left standing on a concrete driveway. As he was walking around the wagon it started to roll down the incline.

JAMES H. PARIS HELD ON A SERIOUS CHARGE

Is Alleged to Have Forged Signature on Check Payable to Miss Ova Scott.

James H. Paris, was taken into custody by J. T. Abell, chief of police this afternoon, and is being held pending a grand jury investigation of a check forgery. Paris is believed by the local officers to be guilty of forging the name of Ova Scott and Samuel Scott on a check made payable to the former for work done at the Reliance Manufacturing Company. The check was cashed at the Seymour National bank and was drawn for $6.33.

The check was cashed between September 20 and September 22. The check was given to a man who presented a forged note to the bookkeeper at the Reliance Co. asking for it. The bookkeeper is said to have identified Paris.

Miss Scott, who has been at her

SUGAR SHORTAGE REMAINS SERIOUS

Situation More Acute as Only Beet Sugar is Available for Middle Western States.

SUPPLY HERE VERY LIMITED

Allotment of A Pound to a Customer is Made By Dealers Who Have Any Stock on Hand.

The sugar shortage in this city is far more serious than at any time during the World War period when it was believed that conditions were about as bad as they could be. During the war the distribution of sugar was placed under certain restrictions to prevent hoarding and while these restrictions have been raised by the food administration there is no danger of hoarding on the part of the consumer as sugar is not available. For several weeks the sales to individual customers have been limited to a pound to a customer, and even then sugar was not obtainable at all times. Some dealers, it is said, have no sugar on hand now, while others have only a small stock.

The excuses for the present condition are as numerous as the sands of the sea, and while consumers like to know why they are unable to buy this necessary commodity there is a general feeling that there would be an ample supply of sugar released by the refineries if the price restrictions were removed by the government equalization board. It is expected that the market will ease considerably after the middle of December when the government's control over

LOCAL MAN FINED IN CITY COURT

George Baxter Pleads Guilty to Liquor Law Violations and is Fined $80.

ARRESTED ON TRACTION CAR

Three Pints of Whiskey and Two Bottles of Beer Found in His Possession.

George Baxter was arrested on a traction car between this city and Louisville Wednesday night by H. L. McCord, county sheriff, charged with having intoxicating liquor unlawfully in his possession. He was brought to this city and arraigned in city court before C. W. Burkart, city mayor, and pleaded guilty. As this was Baxter's first arrest on the charge he was given the minimum fine of $50 and costs, in all amounting to $80 which he paid.

When arrested Baxter had three pints of whiskey and two bottles of beer in his possession. Under the new liquor law it is unlawful for a person to have liquor in any quantity in his possession and the minimum fine which is fixed by law, is the same where violators have only small amounts as in cases where they have a larger quantity.

It is understood that Sheriff McCord was enroute to this city from Crothersville when he arrested Baxter whom he suspected as having been to Louisville to get a supply of intoxicants. It is the opinion of the sheriff that Baxter may have had a larger amount which he disposed of before accosted.

MUSIC FEATURES PLAY

Varied Program Will be Given at "Robin Hood" at The Majestic.

Music lovers will be delighted with the score that is given in connection with "Robin Hood," which will be seen at the Majestic Theater tomorrow night.

No better known nor better loved women ever graced the comic opera stage than Jessie Bartlett Davis, who always played "Alan a-Dale." It was this dashing young 'outlaw' that sang "O Promise Me" so it thrilled the English speaking world. Lorna Doone Jackson is the charming young contralto who sings this role in the coming production, and, according to press comment is the "Alan a-Dale" of recent years.

Ed. Andrews, known by thousands as the leading comedian of the famous Andrews Opera Company, plays the crafty "Sheriff of Nottingham" and John MacSweeney, the veteran Vostonian whose portly figure and curly snow white hair fit so admirably, does "Friar Tuck." Saul Solomon, formerly of the Charles Frohman forces plays "Sir Guy of Gisborne, a comedy part of prominence.

LIFE TERM GIVEN GEORGE KESSLER

Shelby County Jury Returns Verdict of Second Degree Murder for Death of Mae Wilkins.

16 1/2 HOURS DELIBERATION

Body of Former Seymour Woman Found in Cistern in Indianapolis—Death Occurred May 28.

Shelbyville, October 16.—George Kessler was sentenced today to spend the remainder of his life behind prison bars for the murder of Minnie Mae Wilkins in Indianapolis on the night of May 28.—The report of a jury of twelve Shelby county farmers returned at 9:36 today after sixteen hours and thirty-two minutes of deliberation, found Kessler guilty of murder in the second degree.

The jury received its instructions at 5:04 yesterday. Judge Blair, of the Shelby circuit court, stayed in the courtroom until after 11 o'clock awaiting the verdict and then went home and returned early today.

When the jury filed back into the court room they withheld the reading of the verdict until Kessler could be brought in from the jail. Last night Kessler cast his steel blue eyes over the jury box and said:

"If these guys give me a square shake, I'll be all set."

His iron nerve which held up during hours and hours of hard grilling by the Indianapolis police, showed some signs of weakening as he heard the verdict. His face already paled by jail confinement, became still whiter. His wife, mother and sister broke down and cried.

Roxie, the wife, threw her arms about Kessler's neck and kissed him. The jury found that Kessler murdered the cashier of the gasoline station, choking her and throwing her body into a cistern before life was extinct.

PREPARES PLAN TO AVERT COAL STRIKE

Secretary of Labor Wilson To Meet Representatives of Operators and Employees Tomorrow.

RESULTS WOULD BE SERIOUS

Supply of Coal in Reserve Would Meet Demands of Industries About One Month.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Determined to prevent the threatened coal strike by bringing about an agreement between the miners and operators, Secretary of Labor Wilson today prepared a plan of settlement for submission to the representatives of both sides in the dispute when they meet him tomorrow.

John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America is on his way to Washington and is expected here late this afternoon.

Lewis has just called a strike of approximately 400,000 coal miners for Nov. 1. Secretary Wilson, Lewis and Thomas T. Brewster, president of the coal operators' association will confer Friday in an effort to reach a basis for settlement.

Secretary Wilson has been informed that Lewis believes only a definite agreement between the employers and workers can prevent the strike going into effect as scheduled. Should an agreement be reached at Washington through Secretary Wilson's mediation and be signed by representatives of both sides, the strike will be held off until a miners' convention can be called to ratify or

LIEUT. KIRBY AND OBSERVER KILLED

Trans-Continental Air Raiders Crash to Death in Mountain Snow Storm.

DEATH LIST REACHES NINE

Lieut. Maynard Expects to Complete Trip to Mineola Some Time Tomorrow.

New York, October 16—Crashing two hundred feet through a mountain blizzard the plane carrying Lieut. Kirby and his observer, trans-continental air raiders, dashed its occupants to death near Evanston, Wyo., late yesterday, bringing the total dead in the air derby to nine.

Of the five planes making the return flight four are still in the running. Capt. L. Smith, returning to San Francisco, arrived yesterday at Buffalo where his plane was destroyed by fire while in the hands of repairmen.

Major Spatz is due to leave Rochester, N. Y., on his westward trip today. Lieut. Maynard left Sidney, Neb., today hoping to complete his trip Friday. Sidney is 1,096 miles from San Francisco and 1,603 from Mineola.

Omaha, Neb., October 16—Lieut. Maynard was forced down by a broken crank shaft four miles west of Wahoo, Neb., according to reports received here today. Maynard was not hurt.

"I'm not out of the race yet," Lieut. Maynard declared.

Wahoo is thirty miles west of Omaha. It is the next station to Yutan where the Martin bomber was wrecked and Lieut. Maynard has wired Washington for permission to transfer the motor from the Martin machine to his own so he can continue in the race.

ACTION TAKEN TO DEPORT TEN ALIENS

Warrants Sworn Out by Federal Authorities Following Arrests in Gary.

RUSSIANS AND AUSTRIANS

"Red" and Other Revolutionary Banners Found by Troops in Suspected Centers.

Gary, Ind., October 16.—Deportation warrants were sworn out today for ten of the aliens arrested in raids by troops on "red" centers here. The men were Russians and Austrians. All the men held, according to Col. Mapes, are aliens.

"Red" and German flags and other symbols of revolutionary and alien government were found in the raids. The prisoners were placed in the newly completed stockade today.

The stockade is constructed of rough pine. Bunks are arranged as in lumber camps, with wheat straw for mattresses. Tin dishes were supplied by the army officers. Cards, checkers, chess and other games were given the prisoners.

The first meeting of steel strikers since government troops took charge of the strike district was held yesterday. John Fitzpatrick, strike leader, promises development which would permit opening or negotiations with steel company officials shortly.

Work of rounding up "red" agitators in Gary was nearly completed today. Col. Mapes, commanding the troops here, indicated.

He said practically all the leaders who remained in Gary are held. However, it is known that several fled and that nation wide search has been started for them. Evidence was gathered, Col. Mapes announced tending to link the revolutionists arrested here with the German Spartacists and other foreign groups.

Major General Leonard Wood after investigating conditions here left for New York today. Wood called Gary a "hotbed of anarchy."

FIGHTING AREA IN RIGA DISTRICTS IS EXTENDED

Lettish Troops Reporting to Be Holding Portions Along The Dwina River.

By United Press

Mitau, Oct. 15.—As the battle in the Riga districts continues with intense fighting the battle is extending. Col. Bermond's German troops widened their fighting zone Tuesday when they captured Ust Dvinsk and Boldera, according to advices received here.

Lettish troops are holding their positions on the other side of the Dwina river, north of Riga, which they succeeded in crossing after persistent fighting. The Germans are not answering the cannonading, although the Letts continue heavy bombardment of the German positions. The Germans repulsed a Lettish attack with armored cars.

Estonian forces have gone to the aid of the Letts and are reported to be concentrating at Friedrichstadt, 46 miles southeast of Riga. Their arrival endangers the German flank from the east.

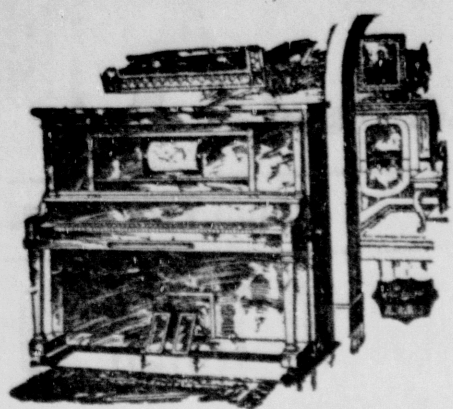

Gen Von Der Goltz is reported to have left the Baltic region for Konigsberg, in East Prussia.

HINES DECLARES CONGRESS IS DELAYING RAIL PROGRAM

Director General Advocates Legislation on Private Ownership Before January.

By United Press

Indianapolis, Oct. 16—Walker D. Hines, rail director, addressing the convention of the National Association of Railway and Utility Commissioners, declared that the railroads of this country face ruin next year unless congress indicate what action it will take toward returning them to private ownership. Hines advocated the legislation before January 1 in order that the present owners might prepare to relieve the shortage in equipment. He said the rail administration could not fill all the needs of the roads because it lacks money.

THRIFT AND EXTRAVAGANCE.

It is the common and accepted practice in the United States, and else where for that matter, for people to spend their money extravagantly and even foolishly when their earnings are large. The wages and salaries received by the American people during the last three years have established a new high record. The cost of essentials have increased, it is true, but there is no question but that a large portion of the increased wages and salaries are spent in ways that would have been regarded as foolish and wasteful a few years ago.

The best way to continue the present period of prosperity is to cultivate the practice of thrift. Thrift is entirely different from parsimony. One is the sensible use of money, the other is the foolish waste of earnings. Too many people today are spending more than they earn or are regulating their expenditures so that they will just "break even" at the close of the year. They are giving no attention whatever to the future. They are not taking into consideration the fact that their earnings might be suddenly stopped because of sickness. The prevailing idea is to spend what one makes and do it quickly. The result of this practice is evident. The successful man is the one who saves and is able to take advantage of opportunities to invest his savings.

The savings division of the United States treasury department has issued a bulletin relative to the closely interwoven process of labor whereby every purchase affects directly or indirectly thousands of people. The bulletin emphasizes the necessity of buying what is actually needed, but curtailing foolish expenses, placing such money in savings accounts or investments.

Included in the bulletin is found the following paragraph which is the common sense view to take:

"Thrift is not parsimony. Thrift is a necessity for the improving of conditions which now face this nation. To spend money foolishly, unnecessarily or to no good purpose is to disrupt the production system and throw away financial and material resources sorely needed to reduce the cost of necessities. On the other hand, it is not necessary to refrain from buying useful and necessary things. The endeavor to get along without the things actually needed is not thrift but parsimony. Thrift consists of wise and intelligent buying, wise and intelligent use of what is bought, wise and intelligent saving and wise and safe investment.

Taxing officials in some Indiana units where the state tax board has fixed the levies for the coming year complain that the rates are too low to permit the collection of adequate revenues for specified purposes. In Kokomo and other places the question is raised as to whether there will be sufficient money available under the new levies to maintain the schools for the usual terms. The state board has replied to such inquiries that the schools will be conducted for the regular periods. Whatever may be said of the new tax law it is agreed that no longer will local officials be permitted to fix arbitrary levies. They must show to the state tax commissioners where the money is to go and before increased levies are permitted the necessity must first be proved. The regulation of the state tax commissioners over public funds ought to have a good effect. In the past money has been regarded as nobody's money, to be spent without giving value received much consideration. Now new safeguards have been thrown around the people's money. Local officials by necessity will be required to watch expenditures more carefully. If the funds allowed are not sufficient the state board can point out to the local officials where the waste has occurred. Thus we have a check over public money which did not exist under the old law.

It happened just as we predicted. The party who was credited with the prediction that the price of shoes would be lower after Christmas now, tells the country that he was misquoted and never made such a statement. On the other hand, he predicts today that the peak in leather prices has not been reached.

ARMY IS READY TO CRUSH ALL DISORDER

Secretary Baker Tells Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs In Session at Cleveland.

By United Press

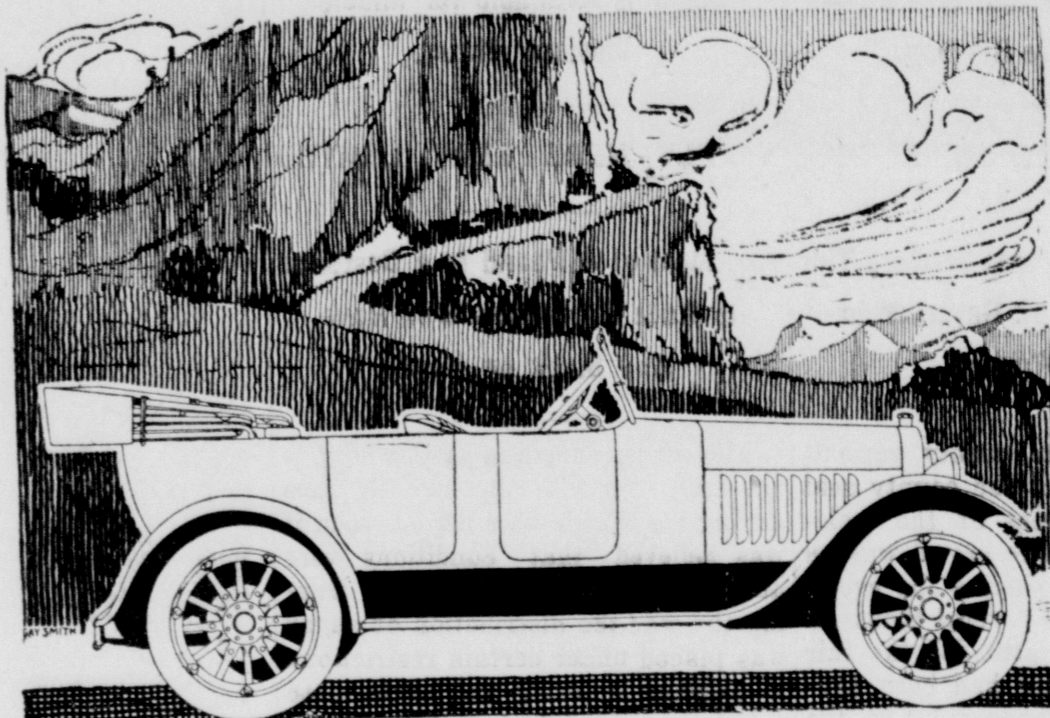

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 16—The whole army is prepared to crush disorder in the United States, Newton D. Baker, secretary of war, told the convention of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs here last night. Baker said the aid of troops has been pledged to every community.

Governors of all states have been assured that it is not necessary to go through the formality of applying to Washington for aid, Baker said. All department commanders have been notified to reply instantly with troops to all requests for assistance he said.

"The army is on the side of order as against disorder" Baker told the women.

Mrs. John W. Lehan of Washington, was in this city this morning enroute to Indianapolis. She will spend several days in this city on her return the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kaufman.

The Respect of the Crowd Goes with a HOT SPOT Chalmers

TO OWN a Hot Spot Chalmers is to have the respect of the crowd.

For it is not so much a mark of riches, though many rich men own and prefer to drive the present-day Chalmers.

It is a peculiar kind of respect, a recognition of judgment, a knowledge of what's the thing, a keenness about motor car development you witness every now and then in club, Pullman car or a friend's home.

Because the very latest things to do with motor car efficiency are Hot Spot and Ram's-horn.

They convert all the hidden, stored-up, hard-to-get-out power that nature put away in the inferior kind of gas we get today.

They provide a new kind of power which is superfluous without being extravagant, has excellent accelerative quality, is noiseless and causes almost no vibration.

If you once get the "feel" of it you too will say Chalmers is one of the few great cars of the world.

CARRY ROOSEVELT'S FLAG TO THE COLONEL'S GRAVE

Banner Borne by Boy Scouts from Buffalo to Oyster Bay as Youth's Tribute.

By United Press

West Point, N. Y., October 15.—The Roosevelt memorial flag, being carried by boy scouts from Buffalo to Oyster Bay, where it will fly above the grave of Theodore Roosevelt, passed through here today.

The flag, without stars, left Buffalo September 3rd. Throughout its journey it has been carried on foot by boy runners, each trailing a mile of the 400 mile trip.

At each stop a star was sewed on. When it arrives in New York City it will have 45 stars. Another will be attached at Brooklyn, another at Mineola and the last at Oyster Bay. The sewing has been done by patriotic and civic societies such as the Daughters of the American Revolution and similar bodies of women.

Up to date stops have been made at Batavia, Elmira, Rochester, Canandaigua, Geneva, Watkins, Oswego, Binghamton, Cortland, Ithaca, Auburn, Syracuse, Rome, Utica, Little Falls, Fonda, Johnston, Amsterdam, Schenectady, Plattsburg, Elizabethtown, Port Henry, Ticonderoga, Whitehall, Fort Ann, Hudson, Catskill, Kingston, Poughkeepsie, Newburgh and West Point.

The plan is to have the flag reach Oyster Bay in time for the Colonel's birthday, October 27. The next stop will be Peekskill, October 16th, then Stony Point, October 17; Tarrytown, October 18; Yonkers, October 20; White Plains, October 21; the Bronx, October 22; New York City, October 23; Brooklyn, October 24; Mineola, October 25th and Oyster Bay, October 26th.

The relay was planned by the Roosevelt Memorial Association. Appropriate exercises have been held in cities and towns along the route as the flag traveled toward its destination.

Mrs. Anna Dixon returned to her home in Deputy Wednesday afternoon after a short visit with Mrs. D. A. Johnson and other relatives in this city.

SHOWS INTEREST IN THE AMERICAN WOMAN

Queen Elizabeth Wants to Know How They Entertain Their Husbands.

By United Press

New York, Oct. 16—What do American women eat and dress, and what do they do to amuse their husbands?

That is one of the things Queen Elizabeth of Belgium, wants to find out on her tour of the United States.

The cheerfulness, versatility, their taste in dress and the way in which they make their sweethearts and husbands idolize them is a source of wonder to the queen, who wants to obtain the secret to pass onto her own people.

Just how the queen is going to obtain this information is not worked out as yet. But visits to factories, department stores, other places where girls are employed will be one of the chief items on the royal program, and from this side of it the queen expects to obtain much of the secret. Then there will be opportunities to visit the real American home, and the queen will utilize the chances of studying the home life wherever possible.

Girls' schools—both convents and co-educational colleges—will also be visited by the queen.

The queen's interest in the American woman's life must not be taken to mean she thinks the Belgian women are dissatisfied. On the contrary, the queen is proud of the home life of the Belgians. But where there's room for improvement, she wants to give them a chance to develop it.

Mrs. James Snow of Aurora, is spending the week in this city with her sister, Mrs. Joe Hulse, and attending the revival services which are being conducted at the Nazarene church.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Catarrhal Deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing may be destroyed forever. Many cases of Deafness are caused by Catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the Mucous Surfaces. home in Freetown for several days on account of illness, called at the factory Wednesday for the money due her. An investigation proved that the check had been cashed under a forged signature at the Seymour National bank and the matter was placed in the hands of the police to investigate. Paris, with whom Miss Scott made her home, denies knowing anything about the forgery. In order that the case can be properly investigated it has been placed in the hands of the grand jury. Paris is being held awaiting the investigation. The accused man is said to have served a term at the state reformatory for forging checks.

of Mrs. Anna Droege, and family, West Brown street.

After the guests were seated, a passage way was formed through the room, leading from the dining room to the living room, lined upon both sides with children. Through this passageway a large basket, on wheels, was arranged which was filled to overflowing with the gifts. The basket was drawn by Evelyn and Melba Ahlbrand, who were dressed in yellow and white to represent cupids. Little Roland Wilde acted as the coachman.

The evening was spent with instrumental and vocal musical numbers, after which refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

The guests, who numbered thirty-six, included Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wilde and family, Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Brunow and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kasting and family, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ahlbrand and family, Mrs. Anna Droege and daughters, Misses Augusta and Ora, Walter Droege, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. pany has been using up the timber stock in the yards in the manufacture of chairs of the same kind made by the Wood Working Company. During that time, however, preparations were in progress for the change into the furniture business. The sample was completed as soon as possible so that it could be placed on exhibit at the New York show.

The company will install new equipment and machinery to the value of $10,000 in the near future and when this is in operation work on the furniture line will be started. Many orders for the dining set to be made by the company have already been received and the prospects for an enormous trade are bright.

Simple Home Remedy Advised For Rose And Hay Fever

Anyone Can Make a Pint For Trifling Sum and Used In Time May Prevent
Annual Attack

"No matter how severe your yearly attack be,
No matter how distressing or humiliating—
Its intensity can be reduced to a harmless, mildness."

says a Kentucky druggist who believes from what he has seen that this simple home made remedy is a most important discovery.

He has seen the most severe and apparently unconquerable cases reduced to what might be called a mild cold in twenty-four hours.

In many cases where the patient started treatment a week or ten days before the expected attack the unwelcome yearly visitor failed to appear with anything like its usual intensity. People who want to try this new treatment can make a pint in a few minutes.

Four one ounce of Mentholized Arcline into a pint bottle then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled. Gargle daily as directed and snuff or spray the nostrils twice daily.

That's all there is to the treatment which so many sufferers have found to be a true friend.

Mentholized Arcline in one ounce vials is dispensed by all the better pharmacies.

FASCINATING TEETH

How Every Woman Can Quickly Charm Her Friends With Lovely Teeth,
Clean, White and Brilliant

If you want the cleanest of white teeth and healthy gums free from disease, an easy and quick way to get both is to use a tooth paste so effective and perfect that astonishing results usually come in a week's time.

And the cost is so little. Just go to any drug or department store, and get a large tube of SENRECO TOOTH PASTE for 35 cents.

Not only will it make your teeth clean and white, but it will at once remove any filmy coating, help to check the ravages of Pyorrhea and banish acidity in the mouth.

It is used by thousands of dentists and its sale has been remarkable. When you visit your dentist, which you should do at least twice a year, ask him about SENRECO. It's a most delightful and refreshing tooth paste.

Notice of Bond Sale.

Accepts Invitation Extended by The "Old Post" Citizens.

At the state meeting of the American Legion held at the state house in Indianapolis Wednesday, Vincennes was chosen as the place for holding the 1920 convention. Representatives from the "Old Post" stated that the citizens there were anxious to entertain the ex-service men and that a reunion program would be planned that would assure every soldier who attends an enjoyable time.

Delegates to the National convention to be held at Minneapolis, Minn., were instructed to make an effort to land the next National convention for Indianapolis. About fifty delegates were selected from over the state to go to the National convention Nov. 11, Dr. Scott Shields, of Brownstown being among the men named. Capt. Oscar B. Abel represented Seymour Post No. 89 at the meeting Wednesday.

WOMEN WORKERS

In almost every line of war activities the women of this country have done well and have taken front rank for doing work that released thousands of men for service overseas. Some women have been over-ambitious and, at the expense of their health, have filled places once occupied by men. Every woman who, because of overwork has brought on some ailment peculiar to her sex, should depend upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable compound to restore her health and strength, as this remedy is now recognized as the standard and has restored multitudes.

BELCHING Caused by Acid-Stomach

Let EATONIC, the wonderful modern stomach remedy, give you quick relief from disgusting belching, food-repeating, indigestion, bloated, gassy stomach, dyspepsia, heartburn and other stomach miseries. They are all caused by Acid-Stomach from which about nine people out of ten suffer in one way or another. One writes as follows: "Before I used EATONIC, I could not eat a bite without belching it right up, sour and bitter. I have not had a bit of trouble since the first tablet."

Millions are victims of Acid-Stomach without knowing it. They are weak and ailing, have poor digestion, bodies improperly nourished although they may eat heartily. Grave disorders are likely to follow if an acid-stomach is neglected. Cirrhosis of the liver, intestinal congestion, gastritis, catarrh of the stomach—these are only a few of the many ailments often caused by Acid-Stomach.

A sufferer from Catarrh of the Stomach of 11 years' standing writes: "I had catarrh of the stomach for 11 long years and I never found anything to do me any good—just temporary relief—until I used EATONIC. It is a wonderful remedy and I do not want to be without it."

If you are not feeling quite right—lack energy and enthusiasm and don't know just where to locate the trouble—try EATONIC and see how much better you will feel in every way.

At all drug stores—a big box for 50c and your money back if you are not satisfied.

Diamond Cut Diamond

By JANE BUNKER

Copyright by the Bobbs-Merrill Company.

George has his virtues and the defects of his virtues—he keeps tab on everybody in the house, who their friends are, how often they call and how late they stay. For me—who never did such a thing—to bring an apple-cheeked young man to my flat after midnight would be nothing short of an adventure in George's eyes. So I got out a quarter—to be ready with my thanks, in case he'd stayed on, waiting for me, as he often did; and there he was, smiling.

I slipped the quarter into his palm and told him how glad I was that I didn't have to walk up—and this gentleman, too, who "had come up from the office to get some papers"—I didn't say what office.

The car slid up—my heart slid down: monsieur was in that flat waiting for me and I knew it. Don't ask me to explain how I knew it—I knew it—and I knew that he was in the kitchen—or would be in the kitchen, when the car stopped at the sixth; that he meant to let me come in, close the door on myself, and then appear; that he had the kitchen window open ready to retreat by the fire-escape if I should happen not to come alone.

I say I knew this. At the same time I knew that I must give him the chance to get away—I must let him know I was not alone.

The car stopped. George asked if he should wait, and I replied, in a rather loud voice, that it might take some little time to find the papers for Mr. Rivers; better go down again, for the front door was still open and somebody might slip in. I fumbled with my key to let the car descend, and when the noise had grown faint, so that monsieur could hear every word I said, I opened the door a crack and held it while I drew out the key, saying, so the words would carry through the hall, "Billy, have you got a match? Won't you strike it before we go in—the flat is dark."

Billy struck a match and the kitchen door slammed as I opened the front door. I knew by that that the kitchen window was open.

The hall, by the outside gas jet, showed nothing out of the way—that had been rearranged to let me get inside and shut the door without suspicion. As to the rest of the flat!

words fall me! It was literally turned inside out and upside down. Drawers had been emptied out on the floor, then piled up and refilled with other things to get them out of the way. Even the bookcases had been moved and searched behind and hundreds of books were heaped on the floor, helter-skelter. Pictures had been taken from the walls and pillow cushions cut open; actually, the breakfast food in boxes, the butter and food in the refrigerator had been searched.

And in the midst of the disorder one thing alone had apparently not been touched—the bunch of hyacinths! I saw it the moment I got the dining-room light turned on. There it stood on the table, just as I had left it when I had crowded the diamonds down among the stems. But were the diamonds there!

I was in the act of making a dash to find out, when I remembered Billy—Billy mustn't know.

He had ejaculated, "Love and potatoes! You did have a hunch!"

I pulled off my gloves—I must see if the diamonds were safe—just a touch with the end of my fingers and I'd know—

"I didn't do it with a hunch, Billy," said I, and I stooped to pick up a table drawer and slide it into place, for there was a considerable barricade between me and the hyacinths that were now out of my reach.

"I didn't suppose you did," Billy was generous enough to admit.

"I did it with a piece of unmitigated folly—"

"Say—where did you leave the cash?" he questioned quickly, and I remembered the five hundred dollars that I'd forgotten for the moment.

I forgot the diamonds and sank into the nearest chair. I stammered, "Billy, I must know the worst, and I'm afraid to go to my bedroom and see if it's gone. It was in the b-bureau drawer."

Billy struck a match and went down the hall. Then I saw the electric light illuminate the doorway and heard Billy:

"Love and pumpkins! Come here—quick!"

I rushed after him, without waiting to see if the diamonds were safe. He pointed to the bed: "Will you look at that!"

All the bed covers had been thrown off and on the mattress lay the five hundred dollars, spread out in rows of tens and fives!

The sight fairly caved me in. It was a great deal worse than if the money had been stolen. The thought that instantly struck me, and Billy too, for Billy said it, was, "That fellow certainly had plenty of time, and what's more, I bet he was waiting for you."

"He was," said I with conviction, catching at the foot of the bed for support.

Billy gathered up and counted the money. It was all there, five hundred dollars.

"Now what—do you make—of that?" he meditated.

I knew what I made of it, but for Mrs. Delario's sake I did not tell Billy. He handed the bills to me.

"There's more to this," he observed. "Some mystery. I must search the other rooms."

"Listen!" I said.

We listened but heard nothing. Then he opened the bathroom door—nobody there. And with that he marched straight to the kitchen door and back to me in a flash.

"You open the front door and get ready to yell bloody murder if anything happens," he commanded.

"No, Billy," I returned, coming to my senses and pulling out my batpin, that had already once done duty that day. "I'll get ready to do bloody murder."

He flung open the kitchen door and we went in together.

Our mysterious burglar had vanished.

"Flew the coop," said Billy sadly. "And I might have caught him if I'd been a minute sooner. Just my luck." He pointed to the open window as he spoke.

To me that open window meant I had missed death because of Billy.

I swayed. He grabbed my arm and steered me to the dining room and berthed me in the chair I'd just left.

"Get me a glass of water, Billy."

"Say, this is NEWS!" he chuckled, while I drank. "Mysterious robbery of well-known authoress—oh, I say, this is NEWS!"

He took the glass to the kitchen and came back with a notebook in his hand. I stumbled to my feet and got him by the shoulders.

"Billy Rivers, this is not news! It's life and death. Not a living soul must know of this till I tell it. Do you understand?"

"Well, but," he began, "a robbery like this—and of you—"

"It wasn't a robbery."

"Wasn't a robbery?" He cast a glance over the wreckage strewn all over. "What was it, then?"

"A search."

"Gee whiz! I believe you're right," he cried, looking about again, with a new light in his eyes.

"I say—the plot thickens! This is a real mystery!"

"Don't you see why it mustn't be known?"

"And do you know who searched and what he searched for?"

"I think so."

Billy stared at me for some seconds before he brought out, "I believe you know more about this than you're telling me. You're concealing something. Well—tell me this—did he get it?"

"I don't know."

Billy whistled and stared. "Say—this begins to be romantic."

"Romantic!" I snorted. "You don't know what romantic is!"

I managed to stop there. However much I respected Billy in general, I hadn't much confidence in his discretion.

"Billy, do you remember the time your mother put on your brand-new Fauntleroy suit and told you not to go to the swimming hole and you went?" I asked desperately, trying to get at him somehow and blind him to a promise to keep this to himself.

"And you went—and the boys threw you in, sash and curls and all? And I found you and took you home and ironed you and curled you up fresh and saved you from—"

"A lickin'—and a good one," he finished for me. "Those were the mother's lickin' days—before she lost the girls. And it wasn't the only lickin' you saved me from," he added, in the grateful way I'd always loved him for, even when I just couldn't love him, he was so bad.

"Billy, dear," I said, pressing my hands on his shoulders, "it's your turn now. Do you understand?—and you've got to forget that you're a reporter and remember only that you're my friend and that I need one; for I'm in a lot of trouble and I simply can't explain."

"Don't say any more," said Billy with a fine air, taking up his hat. I remembered then that he had come for papers—George would be looking for some evidence of my truthfulness—and I snatched up the first sizable book I saw—my German dictionary, though I didn't notice what it was—and a bunch of odd papers and thrust them into Billy's hand and got him out and George up in spite of protests that I ought not to stay alone after that.

I closed the door and put up the chain-bolt, and seeing my clothes all in a heap, went in and hung them up and threw the blankets on the bed. I turned out all the lights but one. And throughout all these operations I kept asking myself, "Did he get the diamonds?"

Trutona Truths Told By Seymour Residents

CAPABILITY FAST INCREASING NOW

Cox Able to Enjoy Present Meals After Four Months of Trouble.

"Last Sunday I ate the first meal I've really enjoyed in the past four months and I thank Trutona alone for the change," Ernest G. Cox, a well known and highly respected Seymour man residing at 416 Carter street, said recently.

"For more than a year," he continued, "I have suffered from liver and kidney trouble and indigestion has bothered me for the past four months. Severe pains in my back and sides prevented me from sleeping soundly at night, causing me to awaken often. It seemed that I couldn't eat much of anything without having to suffer severe pains in my stomach. I felt tired and draggy all the time and just had to force myself to work."

"But, I feel simply fine now, since taking Trutona. As I said, I really enjoyed my first meal in four months last Sunday and it was because it was the first time in that period that I didn't suffer any bad after effects from the eating. The pains in my side and back have entirely disappeared and I sleep soundly all night long now. I had tried a good many medicines but it wasn't until I used Trutona that I got the relief I needed."

AVERS CLAIMS ARE TRUE AND OFFERS THE PROOF

Knightstown, Ind., Oct. 15—"Trutona does just what is claimed for it and I can heartily recommend the medicine to anything suffering as I did."

The above frank statement was made recently by Emery Frederick, well known local blacksmith. Continuing, Mr. Frederick said:

"For some time I have suffered from liver and kidney trouble. Nervousness and indigestion bothered me, too. I had severe stomach pains nearly all the time, especially after eating. I was so nervous I could sleep only a few hours at the time. Trutona has relieved all these conditions and toned up my entire system. That's why I'm glad to recommend it."

"Billy, dear," I said, pressing my hands on his shoulders, "it's your turn now. Do you understand?—and you've got to forget that you're a reporter and remember only that you're my friend and that I need one; for I'm in a lot of trouble and I simply can't explain."

"Don't say any more," said Billy with a fine air, taking up his hat. I remembered then that he had come for papers—George would be looking for some evidence of my truthfulness—and I snatched up the first sizable book I saw—my German dictionary, though I didn't notice what it was—and a bunch of odd papers and thrust them into Billy's hand and got him out and George up in spite of protests that I ought not to stay alone after that.

I closed the door and put up the chain-bolt, and seeing my clothes all in a heap, went in and hung them up and threw the blankets on the bed. I turned out all the lights but one. And throughout all these operations I kept asking myself, "Did he get the diamonds?"

PREPARE NOW FOR ILLS OF WINTER

Trutona Treatment Will Rebuild Your Strength and Put You in Condition.

LOCAL PEOPLE PRAISE TONIC

New Medicine Has Been Unusually Successful in Combating Disease.

There is no time of the year that Trutona, the perfect tonic that all your friends and neighbors are talking about, can be taken to better advantage than during the fall and winter months.

Trutona is a tonic that will give you strength and vitality to withstand the hardships of winter. At this season of the year almost every man and woman in Seymour is in need of a good upbuilding tonic.

Thousands would have escaped illness last winter from the dreaded influenza that swept the country had their systems been in condition to withstand the disease. It is a well established fact that persons in a physically weakened condition are far more susceptible to influenza than the sturdy, robust kind.

Trutona is a tonic of the highest degree, exciting the appetite, soothing the nerves without harmful effects, enriching the blood and cleansing the entire system of waste matter. Trutona's action on the mucous membranes comes quickly and the preparation is excellent, as hundreds have testified, for catarrhal affections of the stomach, liver, kidneys.

Trutona's unprecedented popularity is due entirely to its merit. Although this new tonic has been on the market less than one year its sales record probably far exceeds that of any other preparation in the same time. Merit, and merit alone is responsible for Trutona's great success. Read the statements on this page of what people in Seymour and vicinity think of Trutona.

Trutona is well named the perfect tonic.

SEYMOUR SCENE OF THANKSGIVING

Mrs. Woodward Expresses Deep Gratitude for Relief Trutona Gave Her.

"Trutona has relieved me of a great deal of suffering and unpleasantness and I feel that I should recommend it to anyone who is suffering as I was," Mrs. Anna Woodward, a well known Seymour woman residing at 206 Jeff Avenue, said recently.

"Mine was a complication of troubles," Mrs. Woodward continued. "My liver and kidneys were out of shape and I had indigestion and was bothered with nervousness. For the past three months I have had severe pains in my back and sides, especially in my right side. I would become short of breath at times and frequently had severe pains around my heart. I was nervous and couldn't rest well at night. I usually felt so tired and draggy that I could scarcely do my housework."

"The pains in my back and sides have been greatly relieved by Trutona and the pains around my heart have disappeared now. My appetite has improved wonderfully and I can again enjoy my meals. I'm not nervous any more, either, and can rest well at night. And I'm not all tired out after doing my housework these days. I must say that I certainly feel stronger and better now and I'm glad to recommend Trutona."

WINCHESTER WOMAN IS CONVINCED OF ITS WORTH

Winchester, Ind., October 15—Mrs. Lucinda Hoffman, well known Winchester woman, recently made the following interesting statement concerning her experience with the celebrated new medicine, Trutona:

"For more than a year I suffered from stomach, liver and kidney troubles. I had severe pains in my stomach, sides and back. I was nervous, dizzy and didn't rest well at night. I felt tired and worn out nearly all the time. This medicine Trutona has given me the relief I've needed and wanted for a year. The pains have disappeared, I sleep fine, and my nerves are quiet. I awaken mornings feeling bright and refreshed. I advise others suffering as I did to give Trutona a trial."

SUGAR SHORTAGE REMAINS SERIOUS

the distribution is scheduled to end.

The refiners declare that the shortage is due to the failure of the government to act early in August to get control of the Cuban crop. An article in a retail grocers' magazine this week states that the equalization board advised the government to take over the Cuban crop in August but that no action was taken. In the meantime, it is said, foreign buyers entered the market and purchased about one-third of the crop at a price far in excess of that which American buyers could pay. The article says that the condition has developed into such a state that this government must now buy about two million tons of the Cuban crop at a price that will compete with the foreign bids. This means that the cost of sugar to the consumer will be greatly advanced.

A Washington dispatch states that the government has been asked to continue the operation of the equalization board for another year so that the Cuban crop may be purchased for American use. The senate is scheduled to give its consideration to the matter and while the question is being debated the foreign buyers continue to bid in the stock and the American people continue to buy sugar in pound packages, if they can buy it at all.

Another ruling which complicates the local sugar situation was effective Wednesday and provides that none of the eastern cane sugar may be shipped west of Pittsburgh and that the southern refiners must sell their outputs of cane sugar in the southern zone. This means that the western and middle western states must rely entirely upon the beet crop.

The beet crop will not begin to move for several weeks, it is said, although in former years some beet sugar has been available as early as the middle of October. Just why the crop this year is held up until November is not explained by those who were responsible for the zone distributing ruling.

The chances are very good that as soon as the government releases the refiners from federal restrictions and the commodity is again placed on the market on a competitive basis the supply will immediately increase and the price will also show a marked advance.

M. E. MINISTERS OF DISTRICT CONFER

Thirty-five Pastors Hold Important

Session in This City at Call of The Superintendent.

OTHER MEETINGS HERE LATER

Discussion of Plan for Nationwide Spiritual Campaign to be Made Until July 1, 1920.

Practically every Methodist Episcopal minister of the Seymour district of the Indiana M. E. conference was present at an important session which was held at the First M. E.
church today at the call of the Rev.
L. T. Freeland, district superintendent.
The conference was held here to discuss plans for district work in connection with the spiritual campaign to be made by the church throughout the United States. A goal to "win one million souls before July 1, 1920," has been set by the church officials.

Plans for the district part in the campaign were discussed at length at the afternoon session. It was decided to hold a district retreat or meditative service here on November 3 and 4 and a spiritual activities conference will also be held here November 16. It is announced that speakers of national reputation will provide the program for the spiritual activities conference. It will be devoted largely to young people's work and all Sunday School superintendents, Epworth League presidents and others who are interested in young people's work will be especially urged to attend. It is believed that the attendance to this conference will be large.

In addition to the meetings to be held here which is the center of the district, retreats will be held during the next few months in each of the nine sub-districts of the Seymour district. Local retreats are also planned but the dates for the various meetings will not be announced until later.

The Rev. Charles W. Whitman, pastor of the local M. E. church, delivered an address during the afternoon on the subject of "Personal Work." The Rev. John Ragel, of Nashville, was also scheduled for an address on the subject of "Prayer."

At the morning session, the Rev.
J. W. J. Collins, of Hope, delivered an address on the fundamentals of the sermon. He emphasized the ministers should stress the Fatherhood of God, the Deityship of Jesus Christ and Regeneration. The Rev.
G. H. Murphy, of Columbus, spoke on the subject of "The Holy Spirit," and the district superintendent, who presided, gave an address relative to the district plans.

Complete Metropolitan Production

The presentation of a musical comedy of the grandeur, magnificence and of the elaborate scale of ROBIN HOOD is an event of the entire year in a small city. The production to be given here was authorized by Mr. DeKoven himself. There are three elaborate scenic stage settings—a cast of American operatic stars and a complete orchestra and chorus. The musical program will be one of the finest ever heard in Seymour, including "Oh, Promise Me," "Brown October Ale," "Armourer's Song" and others which have set new lyric standards in the musical world.

"ROBIN HOOD" is a real joy to a music lover. Every moment the curtain is up brings genuine pleasure, for there is not a dull spot in DeKoven's masterpiece. I shall never forget Jessie Bartlett Davis's singing of "St. Swithen's Chimes" in the last act, accompanied by the large chorus and the pealing chimes, the scenes being the central square of the mediæval town of Nottingham. Nor less appealing was the "Armourer's Song" sung at the flaming forge by the big, swarthy blacksmith to the clang of the ringing anvil. Nothing more picturesque can be imagined than the scene in beautiful Sherwood forest where the entire chorus appear as outlaw archers and join with "Little John" in "Brown October Ale," a superb number. The jointly costumed archers, the multi-colored foliage and primitive landscape, lighted by thousands of delicately tinted high power lights form a scene long to be remembered.

"ROBIN HOOD" is sung, spoken, enacted and enjoyed in the plainest English. A cast of forty people including many American operatic artists with their excellent orchestra, beautiful scenery, costumes and effects will provide for you an evening of genuine enjoyment.

The subscription and box office sales have been large. There is no question but that the Majestic Theater will be crowded for this musical extravaganza, and you'll miss a real treat if you do not attend. Reserve your seat now.

War Time Immigration Law.

By United Press

Washington, October 16—With government reports showing that alien radicals are agitating strikes and disorder in all parts of the country, the house today voted to continue for one year after the conclusion of peace the war time entrance into the United States of undesirable foreigners. At the request of Secretary of States Lansing a bill was passed continuing war time passport restrictions under which aliens are required to submit their complete record and undergo a thorough investigation by American consuls before they are allowed to leave their native country for the United States.
